

You Really Make It Hard For Me To Love You

You will note that this has been written with every note of the song as a crotchet. This is to allow the singer to put their very own expression into the song. When I play it I would normally make "hard" in the first line a dotted crotchet and for a quaver.

Similarly I sometimes would leave a beat hesitation before "Love you"

Please make the song your own

Slow with 2 beat feel
